Re: Engagement of Patton Boggs LLP

Dear Mr. Salamé:

Thank you for retaining Patton Boggs LLP to represent the Banque du Liban in connection with the promotion of the image of Lebanese banking before the U.S. Congress and Administration. We look forward to working with you on this important and timely engagement.

To ensure that the Banque du Liban and we have a common understanding of the terms of our representation and to comply with the rules of professional conduct for the jurisdictions in which we practice, I have enclosed a statement describing the standard terms of engagement for legal services to be provided by Patton Boggs LLP. The terms of engagement cover such matters as our procedure for handling potential conflicts of interest, fees, costs and expenses, billing arrangements and terms of payment. Please review the document carefully to ensure that it comports with your understanding. This letter supplements and modifies the enclosed terms of engagement.

Graham Wisner, Caffey Norman, Laurence Harris and I will be primarily responsible for the work done on behalf of the Banque du Liban and we will supervise the lawyers and other professionals who may work on this project. I anticipate that associates, staff attorneys, legal assistants, specialists and/or in-house consultants will assist in the matter.

As explained more fully in the terms of engagement, we will determine our legal fees based on our standard hourly billing rates in effect when the work is performed and the number of hours worked by each attorney. Generally, our billing rates for Partners range from $425 to $990, for Associates from $250 to $570, and for Legal Assistants from $100 to $290. This range varies, slightly, based on geographic location. The billing rates of certain lawyers with special expertise or extensive experience may be outside these ranges. My time is billed at $990 per hour, Graham Wisner's time is billed at $660 per hour, Caffey Norman's time is billed at $750 per hour and Laurence Harris' time is billed at $960 per hour. If you would like to know the hourly billing rates of other billers most likely to work on a particular project, please call me. Generally, we adjust our billing rates at least once annually, typically in October. In addition to our fees for legal services, we also charge separately for certain costs and expenses as described in the
